The home on the corner of Route 1 and the Lycette Road belonging to Lisa Hostetler was completely destroyed in a fast moving fire Sunday morning according to the March 31, 2008 Bangor Daily News.

The Houlton Fire Department responded as quickly as it could; Houlton Chief Milton Cone said the second story of the house had collapsed by the time they arrived. Firefighters from Houlton were assisted by the Hodgdon Fire Department.

Hostetler and her three children, having been away over night, were not at home at the time. It is believed a family pet died in the fire. The home was insured according to Chief Cone. The State Fire Marshall's office will be investigating.
